

KEVIN JORDAN

Kevin's blend of high energy and lovable charm makes him a favorite wherever he performs. His stories about his Police Days, his family, and his views on life, such as: "If a woman gets an engagement ring, then men should get an engagement Big Screen TV!" strike a chord with audiences everywhere. Kevin has appeared on The Today Show, Evening at the Improv, VH-1, MTV, Comedy Central, Comic Strip Live and numerous other network and cable shows.

RICHIE BYRNE

Comedian Richie Byrne has an act that is hard to describe. His hilarious observations about life, family, dating and relationships will bring laughter to any audience. A veteran New York comic, Richie has appeared on The Rosie O'Donnell Show, Stand-Up Spotlight, Stand Up Stand Up, and Rascal's Comedy Hour. In addition to his many comedy credits and appearances, Richie has also performed in numerous off-Broadway theatre productions.

ANDRES FERNANDEZ

Andres Fernandez exploded onto the New York comedy scene with a fresh brand of humor that is universal in appeal. Andres breaks down the barriers of what an audience expects from a Latino comic. Drawing from his life with his Cuban father and his own mixed marriage to a Greek wife, he charms the audience with his storytelling. Andres has made several appearances on NBC's Friday Night, Showtime's Latino Laugh Festival, and Stand Up Stand Up, and he played the starring role in the UPN/Paramount sitcom pilot, An American Family.

BLAKE CLARK

Originally from Georgia and a decorated Vietnam combat Veteran, Comedian/Actor Blake Clark delivers keen comedy observations about American life, politics, military, relationships, his Southern roots, and scientific theories from Dark Matter to the future of the human race. Blake has made dozens of appearances on The Tonight Show, Late Night with David Letterman, The Conan O'Brien Show, HBO Specials, and in over 50 motion pictures. Well known as "Harry the Hardware Guy" on Home Improvement, "Farmer Fran the Cajun Coach" in The Waterboy, "Jules the next door neighbor" on The Drew Carey Show, or even "Chet" from Boy Meets World, Blake will bring you back to reality through his unique form of observational humor.

